THE DAWN OF A NEW SEASON

SPRING 1907

FINDS us, as usual, after months of careful study and preparation, ready with a superb line of

that will compare favorably with any store in the State; a bold claim to make, we'll admit, but a look will convince you that we do not over-estimate our stock.

This display of Men's Spring Suits will arouse the enthusiasm of every man in town who sees it. It includes the newest of the new, every style that is authoritative this season, every fabric and pattern that is desirable will be found in our large stock--all from such famous makers as Alfred Benjamin & Co., Hart, Schaffner & Marx, and Michael Stern & Co., which is a guarantee of their high quality and workmanship--the very top notchers in fine clothing makers.

Better drop around today, if its only for a minute, and take a look at them--examine every suit in the house if you want to. Compare them in style, quality, finish and trimmings, with any other garments you've ever seen, then compare the price and it won't take you long to decide where to buy your Spring Suit.

SPRING SUITS--The acme of perfection, latest cut, newest patterns, and built to fit. Everyone a revelation in what the developed ability of the 20th century tailor can accomplish.

Club checks, shadow stripes and plaids, tropical worsteds and blue serges in both plain and fancies, cut in the height of fashion and at prices that will agreeably surprise you.

MAJORITY ADVERSE.

Oregon Initiative and Referendum is Not Favored.

Austin, March 9.—Senate committee on constitutional amendments made two reports on Senator Senter's initiative and referendum proposition, a majority of the committee making an adverse report, recommending that the amendment do not pass, while Senators Senate and Grinnan presented a minority report in favor of the proposition.

It is a proposed constitutional amendment to inaugurate the Oregon system of initiative and referendum in this state, and permit the people of the state to initiate and vote legislation of a certain kind. As stated, the majority recommended that the proposed amendment be not submitted to the people for adoption or rejection. The minority ask that it be submitted, and it will be up to the entire body to say whether or not it shall be submitted.

Nearly Completed.

Austin, March 9.—Except for a few minor changes the house committee on appropriations has about completed its general appropriation bill. It carries $7,456,924, as against a total of $6,869,914 in the last general appropriation bill.

FOUR WITNESSES.

Some of the Shots Were Dull, While Others Were Sharp.

San Antonio, March 9.—The defense in the Penrose court-martial Friday put four witnesses on the stand. Captains John Preston and Henry M. Dichman of the Twenty-sixth infantry testified to experiments recently made by them in firing and cleaning new Springfield rifles. Private Otis C. West, company B. Twenty-sixth infantry, testified to visiting the barracks after his battalion had left Fort Brown. A Mexican boy had picked up some cartridges and told the witness: "I am going to sell these to kill negroes with."

Quartermaster Clerk O. J. Matlock told of hearing shooting. Some of the shots were sharp and others dull, the former sounding like Springfield rifle reports.

Expert Swimmer Drowns.

New Orleans, March 9.—Quincy E.
Coy, a young expert swimmer, was drowned while trying to swim across Bayou St. John. He was a brother-in-law of Superintendent William A. Porteus of the Postal Cable Telegraph company.

WENT TO WARN SISTER

Howard Nesbit Is Said to Have Stated That

FAMILY OF THAW WANTS

Defendant and Wife, In the Event of an Acquittal, Legally Separated, and Countess of Yarmouth Alleged to Be Particularly Anxious.

New York, March 9.—Howard Nesbit was with the district attorney since Friday and it is said he will be called to the stand to testify that his sister to him Thaw had treated her cruelly while abroad in 1905, because she again "would not tell lies about Stanford White." Jerome hopes by the brother to corroborate the testimony he expects to elicit from Abraham Hummel, the latter being under indictment at the present time for alleged suborna-tion of perjury in the Dodge-Morse divorce tangle. With all the witnesses here enumerated and many others under subpoena, Mr. Jerome adhered to his prediction that the case might be given to the jury by next Friday.

Mr. Jerome when asked how many witnesses he would call, replied smilingly: "The minimum is zero and the maximum twenty-five; it may be either."

He would not modify what he had said to the effect that in the present state of evidence he would assuredly let the case go to the jury and not ask for a commission.

This determination on the district attorney's part pleases Thaw's lawyers and the defendant himself, who all along has feared the asylum for the criminal insane far more than a verdict as to his guilt or innocence under the statutes.

There were many rumors current over a serious estrangement between the defendant's family and his wife, and of the reported desire of the former to bring about a separation of the young couple in the event of a verdict acquitting Thaw of the charge of murder. Young Howard Nesbit, brother of Mrs. Harry Thaw, is quoted as saying:

"The Countess of Yarmouth has said that she will not return to England until her brother and my sister have been separated."

"I did not know of this until my return from Pittsburg last Sunday.
As soon as I arrived here I went to the Hotel Lorraine to warn my sister, but Mr. Delmas would not let me see her alone."

"I did not want any of the lawyers present while I talked to her because I knew they would probably deny it.
"I am sure that if my sister knew of the plans which are being made against her, she would assert herself at once and not remain passive as she has been so far."

It has also been a matter of comment that as two experts have declared Thaw to have been insane at the time of his marriage, the ceremony might be declared void and annulled. Under this rule the will and codicil in which Mrs. Thaw is left the main portion of her husband's estate are also void.

MONTAGUE ON LYNCHING.

Never an Occasion When Resort to It Is Justifiable.

Cambridge, Mass., March 9.—A. J.
Montague, formerly governor of Virginia, gave an address at Harvard university in which he touch on the subject of lynching in the south. He said in part:

"Some of us are taught to favor lynching and therefore, to fear the strong arm of Federal power. This barbaric malady will not be finally eradicated in America until the people exercise a self-restraint born of conviction, and not of fear."

"I give it as my deliberate opinion, shared by the bulk of the law-abiding people of the southland, that there is never an occasion when resort to lynching is justifiable among civilized people. Such practices snap the fundamental bonds of society, and will eventually in a government as capricious and as relentless as that of wild beasts."

THIRTY-FIVE KILLED.

Large Quantity of Dynamite Explodes at San Does, Mex.

El Paso, March 9.—Advices from Chihuahua state that by the explosion of a large quantity of dynamite twenty miles from there, at San Does, thirty-five men, women and children were killed.

Rose Operated On.

Little Rock, March 9.—Judge D. M.
Rose, who was some months ago appointed commissioner to The Hague conference by President Roosevelt, was operated on for appendicitis. Although at the advanced age of seventy-three years, he stood the operation.

First Execution In County.

Richmond, Va., March 9.—Arthur Davis, sometimes known as "Jack" Davis, the North Carolina negro, convicted of the murder of J. F. Salyer, a Syrian peddler of Petersburg, was hanged in the jail at Surrey Courthouse. The execution was the first in the history of the county.

Great Gas Well.

Tulsa, I. T., March 9.—A twenty million gasser the third great gas well in this vicinity within a week, was brought in on Turkey Mountain, two and a half miles southeast of Tulsa.
It is owned by Frank A. Baker of this city.
